FEES ORDERED BY THE U.S. CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA BY PRO SE APPELLANT, AMEER FLIPPIN

I, Ameer Flippin, the pro se appellant in the above case, do hereby move, ex-parte, for a second time extension, an additional 45 days, in which to pay the appellate filing fees ordered by the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in the District of Columbia. Consideration should be given to the fact that I, Ameer Flippin, am presently participating in the appellate process in two FCC Auctions (No.58 and No.59), with several other pending auctions starting over the summer. Additionally, I, Ameer Flippin, presently have 5 other unrelated appellate cases all pending in the Supreme Court of the United States of America. Given the importance of Broadband / PCS Auction No.58, I move for an additional 45 days in which to appropriate funds in the implementation of the due process of law. As the appellant in this case, I, Ameer Flippin, will move the appellate courts to rescind the case to a neutral “District Court” for the case to be heard and decided by a jury. The deployment of emerging technology and the proper “allocation of the spectrum” are vital to the futures of the human race. It is important that the judiciaries objectively execute the due process of law, based upon the letter. I declare “UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY” that the foregoing is true and correct.
